Miller Nurseries Joins The Laurel Group

HUNTINGTON, NY, OCTOBER 6 – The Laurel Group adds the Miller Nurseries team to its fine landscapes division, expanding the Laurel service footprint within northern Nassau county. Both The Laurel Group and Miller Nurseries have the finest reputations in the industry making this merger a perfect fit. The combined organization will continue to provide platinum level landscape service, design and installations for all Miller clients with the same level of care that has been delivered for decades.

“We look forward to the opportunity to build on the trust and loyalty established by three generations of the Miller family, as well as adding the skill sets of the Miller team to the larger Laurel enterprise,” says Mark McAteer, CEO of The Laurel Group. “This opens up all the resources available at the Laurel Group to future projects and continuing service for the Miller clients.”

This is the latest addition to The Laurel Group portfolio of companies and is part of the companies ongoing growth initiatives.
